

Sid Larson

Thank you for the invitation to present at the 2017 Wisconsin Horse Council Judges' Seminar.

I have been a nationally credentialed judge in ten different breeds and currently hold judge's cards with the American Paint Horse Association, Pinto Horse Association and the International Buckskin Horse Association. I have had the honor of judging 7 national championship shows for four different breeds. I became a member of the Pinto Judges' Hall of Fame 10 years ago and received a ring to commemorate 40 years as a Pinto judge at last year's Color Breed Judges' Seminar.

My wife, Juli, and I own Fox Hollow Farm in Clinton, Wisconsin. We train and show regional and national caliber Arabian horses in hunter, western, and saddle seat.

I have been an educator my entire adult life. I have been a literacy coach for the Janesville Schools and Clinton Community Schools. I am currently a Literacy Consultant for CESA2 which is an educational services agency in southern Wisconsin. Most of my CESA work involves workshop presentations and professional development in school districts. I am also an adjunct professor teaching mainly graduate level education courses for both Concordia University Wisconsin and for Aurora University.
